

Renold Baroryee

Renold Baroryee, 55, died on Monday, March 11, 2013 at the Stanton Hospital.

He leaves his wife Jolly, his son Jonathan and his wife, and daughter Brigitta and her husband, extended family and many friends.

Born and raised in Gopalganj, Bangladesh, the son of late Mr. J. N. Baroryee and Mrs. Subhashini Saha. He studied at Kellogg Mukerjee Memorial Seminary, Jalirpar, Bangladesh and completed his higher secondary education at Dhaka Commerce College, Bangladesh.

He was a musically talented person and the flute was his favourite instrument. He played flute in various church services and ceremonies. He entertained guests by sharing jokes. Children loved him because of his charm in tricks and magic. He also loved to fish.

After his marriage to Jolly, he extensively travelled around the world and learned various languages. He wanted to settle in a beautiful country and chose Canada in 1999 and immigrated with his family. His passion for cooking later influenced him to be a cook and start a catering business in Yellowknife named Jolly's Taste of India. He was a very hard working man.

A funeral service was held on March 13, 2013, followed by burial at Lakeview Cemetery.

