*.... and many others who are not listed here. Please know that your contribution was very much appreciated. We would like to thank the entire community of Lutsel K'e, including all of our extended family members, the people of Fort Smith, as well as our friends from far and wide for the overwhelming support we received in our time of great need. A special thank you to Iris and Florence Catholique for organizing the travel arrangements for friends and family. We would not have been able to get this far without you. Marci Cho.
