

Frank Fong (Robert Douglas)

September 30, 1967 - February 19, 2004

CJCD lost a member of the family last Thursday. Frank Fong, who used the name Robert Douglas, passed away peacefully in Stanton Hospital. Frank came to Yellowknife in the fall of 2002 as News Director at CJCD. He was 36 years old.

Frank worked in radio since the mid '80s, starting as a deejay in Prince George. He later spent 8 years with CKNW in Vancouver as a news editor and anchor.

Everyone Frank worked with became his friend. He had a heart of gold, and always put his friends first. He loved the news "business", and worked right up until the day before he died.

Frank had a heart transplant in the mid-90s, and had been undergoing dialysis for the past several months. He never lost his good humour or optimistic outlook, keeping us all smiling right to the end.

Frank will be greatly missed by us all at CJCD.
