

Ronald William Fuller

10 March 1949 – 29 September 2015

Ron passed away peacefully at Stanton Hospital Extended Care in Yellowknife. He is survived by his wife Lyda, mother Edna, brother Brock (Marcia), and nieces Meredith Knafelc, and Adrienne Nichols. He was predeceased by his father, Wilfred, and good friends Ken Phillips and Thom Keane, as well as by his favourite cats: Chester, Momcat, Duster, FBK, Sprout and Sprite.

Ron was born and raised in London, Ontario. He and Lyda were married for 32 years. They lived in St. Thomas, Ontario, and Regina, Saskatchewan, before moving to Yellowknife in 1997. A kind and gentle spirit, Ron was an avid nature photographer, birder, and camper.

In lieu of flowers, donations are encouraged to the Nature Conservancy Canada or to the SPCA.

A Celebration of Life will be held at McKenna Funeral Home on Saturday, October 3, 2015, from 3:00 to 6:00 pm.

Lyda would like to thank Dr. Eileen Peters and the caring staff at Stanton Hospital Extended Care.
