Joyce “Joy” Winnifred Watt

Much loved, sadly missed, always remembered.

Joy died peacefully in her sleep the evening of August 4, 2017, predeceased by her husband Erik, her parents Alfred and Glen Helen Hargreaves of Saskatoon, and her brothers Mike and Eric. Joy was 87.

Joy was widely known in the city for her selfless volunteer work, notably her devotion to the Stanton Hospital gift shop, her support of the Northwest Territories Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and her constant canvassing in the cause of medical research. Those generous contributions to the community were acknowledged in 2002 with the Queen’s Golden Jubilee Medal.

Joy will be celebrated with a funeral service 2:00 P.M., THURSDAY, AUGUST 24 at Holy Trinity Anglican Church, 4909-52 Street. She will be lovingly remembered afterwards at a gathering of friends and family at the Baker Centre, 5710-50 Avenue, commencing at 3:30 p.m. All are welcome.

Joy’s friends and family are grateful to the staff of Stanton’s 3rd Floor Medicine Ward for the tenderness and compassion they showed during her three-and-a-half months in hospital there.

Joy loved her dogs. In lieu of flowers, donations to the Northwest Territories Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals would be most appreciated.
