The Journey

When I close my eyes I still remember
That old dance hall where I met you.
We traveled many roads since then together.
I wouldn't change one moment,
if you asked me to.
I couldn't have made this journey without you.
There has been many times your love
has seen me through.
We have been down this road of life together.
Yes we have gone a mile or two.
But, I couldn't have made this journey without you.

Side by side we have crossed each bridge together
Hand in Hand we have made it by his grace.
Through the years your strength
has been my companion.
There is no one that could ever take your place.
I couldn't have made this journey without you.
There have been many times your love
has seen me through
We have been down this road of life together
Yes we have gone a mile or two.
But I couldn't have made this journey without you Love you and miss you.
