

In Loving Memory of Tara Osmond

September 27, 1980 – November 01, 2009

Death leaves a heartache
no one can heal,
love leaves a memory
no one can steal.

Tara will forever be remembered by her devoted parents, Leonard and Sharon Osmond of Hermitage, NL, boyfriend, Rob Coolen, grandparents, Ernest and Clarice Hill at Hermitage, grandmother, Phyllis (Lew Gallant) at Stephenville, NL.; grandfather, Malcolm Osmond (Rita) at Doyles, Codroy Valley, NL and the many close friends whose lives she touched while living in Yellowknife and Rae.

A service of remembrance will be held at 7:00pm on November 18, 2009 at the Holy Trinity Anglican Church. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to a trust account being set up at CIBC, letters and cards can be brought to the service and will be forwarded to her family.

If tears could build a stairway,
and memories a lane,
I'd walk right up to Heaven
and bring you home again.

~ Author Unknown

