

Elizabeth Anne Sullivan 1946-2007

ELIZABETH ANNE SULLIVAN (nee Carmichael) passed away on Wednesday, March 28, 2007. She died at home surrounded by her family, the people and the things that she loved.

Elizabeth was born in Halifax, Nova Scotia and was a graduate of Mount Saint Vincent University and Dalhousie University. She was an elementary school teacher at St. Patrick's Elementary School in Yellowknife and in Halifax before leaving teaching to raise her family.

Elizabeth is survived by her beloved husband Terry; her children, Cameron of High Level, Alberta; Grace of Stony Plain, Alberta; Claire of Calgary, Alberta; and Sean of Kamloops, British Columbia. She is also survived by two brothers Douglas Carmichael (Jeanne d'Arc) of Comox, British Columbia; David Carmichael (Sharon) of Moncton, New Brunswick; and two sisters Deborah Patterson (Andrew) of Gaspé, Quebec; and Marian Hingston (John) of Halifax, Nova Scotia. She is also survived and will be missed by many friends, in-laws, nieces and nephews in whose lives she was a positive influence and an important presence. She was predeceased by her parents Leo Gerald Carmichael and Margaret Carmichael (Underwood) of Halifax, Nova Scotia and a sister Joan Fanning (William) of St. John's, Newfoundland.

Elizabeth is remembered for her generosity and caring for others. She was a benefactor of many charities and a volunteer in the various communities in which she lived during her life. She loved her years in Yellowknife and her years at St. Patrick's, especially her involvement in a number of Alex Czarnicki's drama productions. She was an active member of St. Patrick's Parish, where she was a Eucharistic Minister, a lector and a member of the Parish Council. She loved to sing and loved the outdoors. Elizabeth loved her family, her music, her books and her garden.

The Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated by Monsignor Jerry Desmond at Sacred Heart Cathedral in Kamloops at 11:00 am on Monday, April 2, 2007. A Mass will also be celebrated at Mount Saint Vincent Motherhouse in Halifax on Wednesday, April 4, 2007. In lieu of flowers or those wishing to make a donation can do so in Elizabeth's name to the local chapter of the Canadian Cancer Society. Online condolences may be expressed at www.schoenings.com

Arrangements have been entrusted to Schoening Funeral Service, Kamloops, B.C. telephone 250 374-1454.

