

Irma Weaver

It is with great sorrow, the Weaver family announces the passing of their mother, Irma Helen Weaver. She passed away peacefully in her home in Yellowknife on August 12, 2005. Irma was born in Coleman, Alberta on February 27, 1930. In 1939 her family moved to their homestead farm in Nampa, Alberta where she was raised along with her three brothers and four sisters. In April 1952, Irma was married to Bruce Vincent Weaver. Shortly thereafter, they moved to Yellowknife and raised a family of eight children. Irma was predeceased by her husband Bruce and took on the directing role of Weaver and DeVore Trading Ltd.

Irma will be fondly remembered by her loving family, Ken (Esther, Vince, Shane), Bud (Diane, Katie, Sarah, Lisa), Bill (Lydia, Kelina, Bruce, Steven), Robbie (Richard, Jamie, Trish Borden), Bob (Mary), Dave (Hilda, Melissa, Whitney), Dallas (Jodee, Jennifer, Geoffrey, great grandchildren, Cameron and Jordan) and Terra (Jim, Shayla, Meghan Pagonis). She is also survived by her brother, Gulliver Rucka, sisters Julie Ramage, Violet Weaver and families.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me
I don't want to rise in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little bit but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me - but let me go.*

*For this journey we all must take,
And each must go alone
It is all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me - but let me go.*

It was our mother's wish that her family mark her passage and celebrate her life privately. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Stanton Territorial Hospital.
